THE STUDENTS AT STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE COLLEGE...

... PRESENT

The 1950

STONE FORT

Pictures can penetrate the fog of time and bring back pleasant memories of the past. In the following pages of your 1950 STONE FORT, we present a pictorial review of life at Stephen F. Austin State College. With the largest student body in history, activities increased in proportion. This gave our aggressive photographers an abundance of material to cover. Space placed its limitations. We selected the subject matter which we considered representative of "the great life," and maximum effort was exerted to publish a pose of each and every one of you. Turn these pages, and memories of this magnificent year at Stephen F. Austin will return to you.

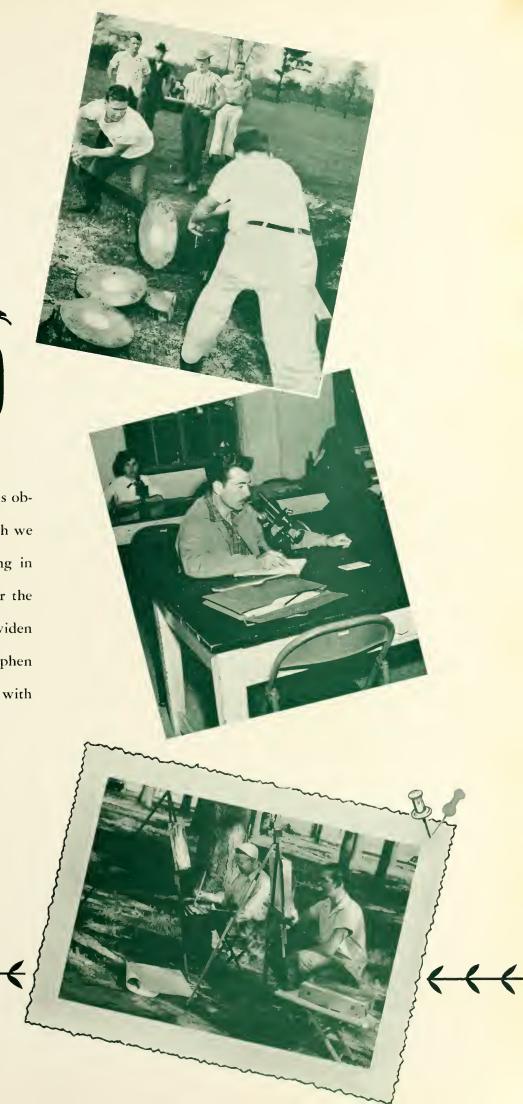

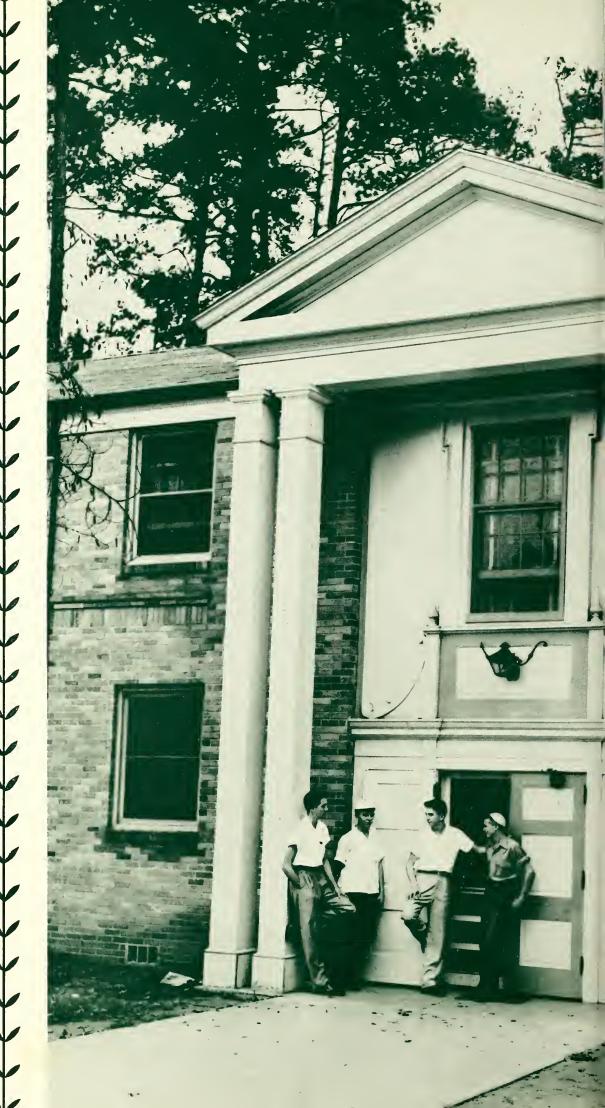

Science Building

SFAin 1950

Knowledge is power, and knowledge is obtained easily by doing those tasks which we find enjoyable. As we pursue learning in our selected fields, we are grateful for the facilities which give us the ability to widen our scope of knowledge. Here, at Stephen F. Austin State College, we are blessed with the best of those facilities.

Play is essential to a well rounded education. We have spent many happy hours in Aikman Gym and WRC.

PICTURE

The future of East Texas is in her timber. The stately pines of SFA add to the beauty of our campus while they stand as silent guardians to guide our destiny as Lumberjacks.

Mr. Lumberjack of 1950

Old Stone Fort

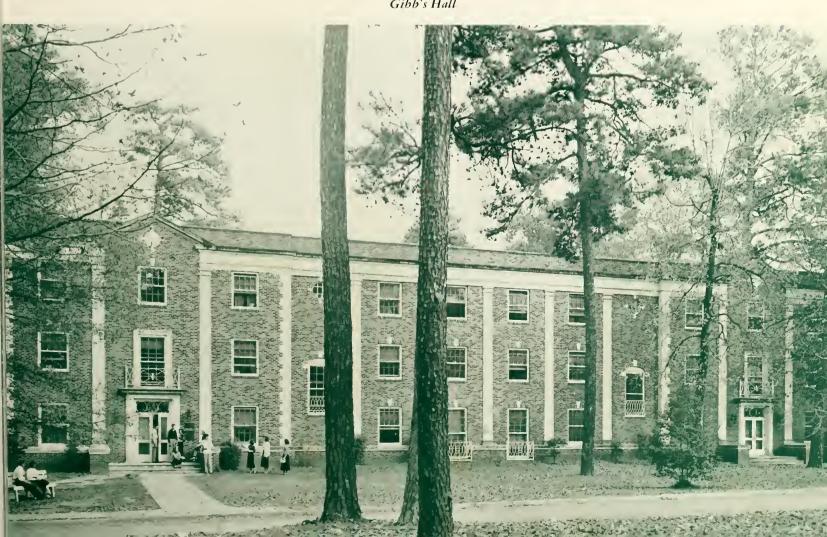

We reached a new high in our train of traditions this year. The Sam Houston Bearkats went back to their dens bearing the worst defeat that the Lumberjacks ever handed them. That great event vied even with highlights which started with the President's Fall Reception and ended with the gala Spring Festival.

DR. A. W. BIRDWELL

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

The three attributes of character which we students and faculty members hold in highest regard are those of Courage, Loyalty, and Unselfishness; Courage to do that which one knows to be right; Loyalty to one's ideals; and Unselfishness in dealing with one's fellowman.

To Alton W. Birdwell, whose acts through the years have been conditioned by these attributes we owe much. He has had the courage in the face of stern opposition to recommend and do the things which he felt to be the best interest of Stephen F. Austin State College; he has been loyal to the ideals which he set for himself; he has been unselfish in that he has pushed on to goals which he felt would be beneficial to all.

So, to Alton W. Birdwell, whose life is the very acme of Courage, Loyalty, and Unselfishness, we dedicate this page.

OUR PRESIDENT

Dr. and Mrs.
Paul L. Boynton

We are happy to present to all of you, students, faculty, ex-students, and friends of S. F. A., another chronicle of the College's personnel and activities. We are intensely proud of our students, and staff. Hence, we are not surprised to find that this has been a good year, one characterized by much learning and much wholesome living, one long to be remembered and cherished by all.

To you, our graduates, we wish the best of everything in the years that stretch before you. We hope most sincerely that as a result of your training and experiences at Stephen F. Austin you have acquired those skills and that knowledge, and have perfected those habits of thinking which will be of greatest help to you in your personal and professional lives. We wish for you a bountiful supply of opportunities for hard, worthwhile, and productive work. Also, it is our hope that as you live boldly and effectively, you may also live joyously. In other words, we hope each of you will make the contribution to life about you, and to your own well-being of which we know you are capable. Good luck! It is you who now carry the banner of Stephen F. Austin State College.

fait Loudon.

EX-STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Stephen F. Austin State College Ex-Student Association is to encourage good fellowship and loyalty among former students and to promote the general interest of the College.

JAMES T. OGG
President
Class of 1937, Longview

The main function of the year for the Ex-Student Association is the Homecoming held each fall during football season. At this time all former students are invited and urged to return to the campus. Meetings of county S. F. A. Clubs are held at various times during the year and are a vital part of the entire program.

When students leave the college their best avenue of contact with it is through the Ex-Students' Association. An office is maintained at the college to serve as a "clearing house" for information and requests. It is the desire of the Association that each student feel free to call upon this office for service while he is off the campus and to make it his headquarters when visiting his Alma Mater.

CLASSES

Dreams Are Made of Rosy Shades

Dreams are made of pastel shades
Mine have a rosy glow
For I'm a lofty senior
A man that's in the know
I'm acquainted with the classics
Know the rest from A to Z
And pretty soon they'll hand me
My lil' ol' first degree
Then I'll go out, conquer the world
Think of all the fame
I would introduce myself
But I've forgotten my name.

SENIOR CLASS

To the Seniors of 1950, we, the remainder of the Stephen F. Austin student body, lift up our eyes in admiration. You have showed the courage, patience and faith to stick to your objective. Your departure from our ranks will leave a note of sadness, and we know that time will not erase your memory.

Dreams Are Made of a Pinker Shade

Dreams are made of pastel shades Mine are turning pink
For I'm a joyful junior
And I know how to think
I love to sit and meditate
About the finer things
I've even learned to concentrate
On Cabbages and Kings
Oh! I'm a mighty thinker
Bright as the morning star
Did you hear me mention
Where did I park my car?

Dreams Are Made of a Purple Shade

Dreams are made of pastel shades Mine have a purple hue I'm a romantic sophomore From the women's point-of-view I've watched the upperclassmen Developed myself a line And now the girls all love me They think that I'm divine So call me Casanova And get my number right My problem at the moment—Can I get a date tonight?

Homecoming Activities

Shirt sleeves and sunsuits would have been more appropriate for the weather, but the faithful turned out in cold weather designed Lumberjack garb in spite of the heat. The pace of this 1949 Homecoming was nearly as hot as the sun and all but a hardy few were noticeably drooping when the day was done. The biggest and best Homecoming parade (the Foresters walked off with first prize for their float) yet officially marked the beginning of the day's activities, and the dance in Aikman Gym, featuring the coronation of Queen Jean, ended it.

Sandwiched in between were the Lumberjacks' rout of the Bearkats, a score of club luncheons, teas, and dinners, and the happy meetings of exes, students, and comrades. When the last note from Buddy Ryland's trombone had died away, and the last of the dancers had reluctantly departed, a memorable Homecoming Day was over. Below are a few reminders of the highlights of the day.

Campus Life

Nothin' like a good domino game to relax a tired mind . . . The Old Folks really get the spirit around Christmas . . . No, his hands are not taped, Branch is really holding those halls . . . sh-h-h, we don't want this to get out! . . . Adkins and Sheley, faithfully working on the Stone Fort.

FTA president, Evelyn Camp, gives Mary Lon Low and Yolando some pointers ... Albert Kelly, runner-up for Mr. SFA ... Duff lets 'em have it, and takes the ball ... Mary Lou Low, runner-up for Miss SFA ... let me show you how to play pool ... the freshmen have no rest around McCauley (with the pipe)!!

"Foresters Forever" echo at their meetings . . . Billie George and Bubba (nuff said) . . . Gibbs Hall queens making ready for the Sandman . . . the Sawyers entertained with a quartet at the Corn Husking Bee, December 5th . . . Mike, Tommy, Hamp, and Harold cuttin up in Wisely Hall . . . Caveman Joe Sexton!

A scene from "Fall Fiesta," presented by the Sigma Gammas in October . . . Libby and Barbara make throwing darts look like fun! . . . the Shadow in operation . . . Wesleyan's float carries religions theme . . . You name this one . . . Sawyers well represented in local parade.

Parties

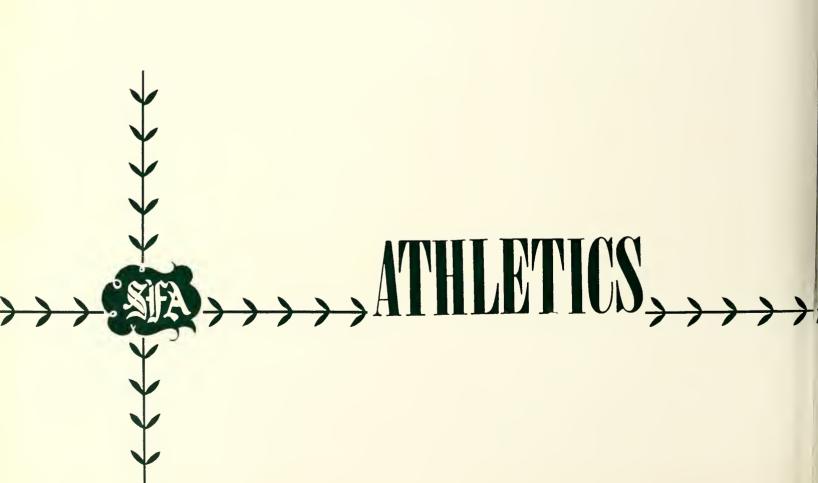

Come right in, Tucker... Morning coffee at Nance's... Virginia gets around—here she is at the ball game... BSU welcomes students to SFA campus... Fideles entertain rushees with ranch party... Gibbs Hall, where they study about first one thing and another.

Everything from Indians to Pirates were seen at the Fidele-Forester Halloween Costume Ball . . . and the little dog said "everybody makes such a fuss over me" . . . Betty and Tommy decorating the goal posts for a home game . . . almost everyone made it for this one . . . "Now girls, let me tell you" . . . My, what a good looking convertible you boys have!!!

TED L. JEFFERIES

In his three years on the campus as Athletic Director and head football coach, Ted Jefferies has endeared himself to those with whom he has come in contact. He has proved himself an efficient administrator, and his football teams have proved that he is a capable coach.

The Athletic Department has expanded and improved so that now SFA ranks high in Texas athletic activities. Under his leadership, this progress has been made, and as SFA grows its students and ex-students can be proud of Coach Jefferies and the Athletic Department.

LUMBERJACKS 55 MEXICO CITY COLLEGE 0

For its second go of the year Stephen F. Austin played host to the Aztecs of Mexico City College in an intersectional game on September 24. The Jacks downed the game but outclassed Aztecs, made up mostly of Texas footballers getting south-of-the-border learning, 55-0.

LUMBERJACKS 40 DANIEL BAKER 0

Coach Paul Tyson, great Waco High coach of yester year, had difficulty getting his first Daniel Baker team to perform as his Waco Tigers used to do. The Hill-billies put up a stubborn fight but weakened in the final frames to give the Jacks a 40-0 win.

FIRST TWO GAMES

SCORES

Stephen F. Austin journeyed to Commerce to meet the East Texas
State Lions in the first conference game of the season. An inspired Lion team exploded from the first kickoff, which they ran back
100 yards for their first talley.
The Jacks played a stubborn defensive game but were downed 13-0 by the conference champion
Lions.

SFA19	East Texas Baptist
SFA55	Mexico City
SFA 0	East Texas State
SFA 6	North Texas State2
SFA23	Southwest Texas State20
SFA	Louisiana
SFA40	Daniel Baker
SFA12	University of Corpus Christi
SFA51	Sam Houston State. 12

Sherman Hughes breaks loose for big gain.

Before an excited and highly partisan Homecoming Day crowd of 6,000, the Jacks poured on the steam and rolled over the highly touted Bearkats of Sam Houston State Teachers College, 51-14. Uncorking deceptive and deadly accurate passes the Lumberjacks played great football to wrap up an equally great season and send homecoming visitors home happy.

LUMBERJACKS 23 SOUTHWEST TEXAS STATE 20

The Lumberjacks met Southwest Texas State October 22, in Memorial Stadium for their second conference tilt. Trailing 13 points at the half, the determined Lumberjacks came back in the last half to snatch victory from defeat. Sparked by the running of James Canter and the quarterbacking of Leo Anger, the Jacks came through with a 23-20 win over Southwest Texas.

When the gun sounded ending the Stephen F. Austin-Sam Houston hoedown, November 19, 1949, the Lumberjacks had completed the most successful year in SFA football history. Coach Ted L. Jefferies' Lumberjacks played nine games, won seven of them, soundly thrashed the traditional rival Sam Houston Bearkats, tied for second place in the Lone Star Conference, and ended up in fourth place among all Texas college teams.

Opening the 1949 season against East Texas Baptist College with 19 to 7 win, and closing it with a 51-14 victory over Sam Houston, the Jacks salted away some fine statistics for Stephen F. Austin football annals. Suffering defeat only at the hands of East Texas State and North Texas, the Lumberjacks were a spirited and ever dangerous team.

A REVIEW OF THE

Leo Anger wrote finis to four years of college football with brilliant field generalship and Oliver McKay sparked Lumberjack offensives with precision ball handling and yardage gaining runs. In the point-after-touchdown department, with the ferocious accuracy of Billy Jack Roberson's kicking, the only worry SFA had was getting somebody to throw the ball back on the field. Turning in great performances as well as closing out their college football careers were Roy Davidson, James "Dusty" Due, Oliver McKay, Fred Jackson, H. W. Wilson, Leo Anger, Billy Jack Roberson, Sherman Hughes, and Merlin Broussard.

A salute to our departing seniors who turned in excellent performances.

LUMBERJACKS 19 EAST TEXAS BAPTIST 7

For the 1949 season opener SFA journeyed to Marshall to take on the East Texas Baptist College Tigers. The inexperienced Lumberjack line met unexpectedly stiff opposition and floundered during the first half, but came back in the final frame to win 19-7.

After an auspicious start in the Lone Star Conference in the 1948-49 season when his Lumberjack charges won the loop crown handily, Coach Glen Rose was faced with that old coaching bugaboo, "rebuilding," in the next time out. Losing two of his all-conference stars, the lanky mentor from Arkansas fielded a near-freshman quintet on occasions, and guided them to a creditable season. The young team rewarded the coach's tutoring with a scrappy, high-scoring try in every one of the twenty-four games. Most of the losses the team experienced could easily have been victories with a little luck. Taking everything into account, Lone Star members had better watch Coach Rose and the 'Jack cagers for the next three years. They're young, big, and full of hustle.

ON THE HARDWOOD

The season record for the Lumberjack basketballers showed eight won and sixteen lost, four of the wins and eight of the losses coming during the conference campaign. On the face of it, it didn't look too good. There were compensating factors, however, which brought a gleam to the eyes of 'Jack followers. In the first place, the team was mostly a freshman-sophomore combination, which can be expected to improve rapidly in the next few seasons. Then there is the fact that the 'Jack quint outscored all other Lone Star teams, both in season and conference play. In fact, three Lumberjacks, Johnston, Duff, and Asimos, were among the first seven leaders, with Johnston walking away with first place honors.

At the risk of second-guessing, there's this to consider, also. At least half of the 'Jack losses could have been victories with a little more luck. They soundly thrashed every team in the conference at least once, and were never up against a weak quint during the season. They may have been outscored, but nobody could say they were ever outhustled.

Richard Glochzin, who signed with the Philadelphia Phillies.

The 1949 edition of the Lumberjack baseballers again grabbed a share of the Lone Star Conference championship title— they were co-champions with Sam Houston. In 1947 and '48 the Axemen, under the guidance of Coach Joseph Gallagher won the flag outright.

In gaining their co-championship title, the Jacks defeated the University of Houston twice, East Texas twice, and Hardin College and Sam Houston once. Their only two conference setbacks came at the hands of the Bearkats and the Indians.

Two members of the 1949 team made the all-conference team—Leo Anger, junior first baseman and Ted Asimos, freshman second sacker. Richard Glockzin, Axemen pitcher, was the only conference pitcher to go undefeated in loop play. His four wins and no defeats played an important part in his signing a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies.

OTHER SPORTS

As do most schools, Stephen F. Anstin's athletic program emphasizes the "big three" in collegiate competition; football, basketball, and baseball. A fairly broad program, however, is embraced and the school fields teams in tennis, golf, and track. Of late, the Lumberjack minors have not been carrying home many trophies, but they keep plugging away.

ON THE TENNIS COURT

On days that the sun is permitted to shine, the resounding thwack of the tennis balls against catgut is evidence of a lively, rather restricted, interest in tennis. A group of hard-working and determined racquet wielders practice constantly sharpening up their game in preparation for spring tennis tourneys. Due to the stiff practice and additional experience of last year's net squad, Stephen F. Austin's tennis chances look brighter this year than they have looked for many a moon.

Making up the team are three lettermen from the 1949 squad, one from 1947 and one hard serving new member.

The 1949 tennis team, made up of Truman Milling, Gene Paul Agleton, Glenn Hardin and Kenneth Fox, won six matches last year against seasoned opponents, and promise to give the big guns of Sam Houston and University of Houston a battle for the honors.

The 1949 team was composed of freshmen with little or no tournament experience, but they return this year greatly improved and confident. Milling, Fox and Agleton are joined by veteran Jerry Gartman and hard-hitting Rudy Bowden, to make up Coach Glen Rose's 1950 SFA tennis team.

THE CHEERLEADERS

"We've got the pep, we've got the steam" was a good characteristic of the cheerleaders this year. Not only did they support the Lumberjack teams during athletic events, but they helped foster school spirit during other college activities throughout the year.

The cheerleaders led yells at the football games, served as a welcoming committee to all visiting cheerleaders, conducted pep rallies on Thursdays and Saturdays before the games, held an early morning pep rally to send the Lumberjack team to an out-of-town game, participated in the Homecoming parade and were in charge of the bon-fire pep rally, and when basketball season came, they found their place for leading yells on the hardwood sidelines.

Under the sponsorship of H. E. LeBrecht, the cheerleaders were Viola Bailey, Nacogdoches; Pat Bowser, Lufkin; Phyllis Garner, Beaumont; Maurice Hubbard, head cheerleader, Lufkin; Frank Lindsey, Jasper; and Albert "Hamp" Wheeler, Northward Ridge, New Hampshire.

NTRAMURAL

Sports

Intramural sports are an integral part of Stephen F. Austin's campus life, as is shown by the number of intramural teams and the keen rivalry that exists between them. Not only do the men's social clubs field teams in basketball, football, volleyball, and baseball, but a rash of independent teams with eccentric-sounding names breathe hot on the heels of the clubmen.

This year the Foresters, Sawyers, Lambda Gammas, and Austinites had to face the hardy competition of such free wheeling independents as the Crackerjacks, Leaping Lenas, Hot Rocks, Snow Birds, Hungry Five, Ragknots, and Pine Knots. For the second season in a row the Sawyers walked off with the intramural basketball championship, but only after a stiff battle with the Pine Knots. The football championship battle was between those two ancient enemies, the Foresters and the Sawyers. The Foresters took the game and displaced last year's winners, the Austinites, as football intramural champions.

Because of an early publication date it is impossible to include the outcome of volleyball and baseball, but all organizations are zealously rounding up potential players, and the competition is sure to be frenzied and frantic.

STONE FORT

The end of another year always brings us a new annual. This year, we, the annual staff, have thoroughly enjoyed our work and sincerely hope that we have created a book which shall aid you in recalling all of your fond or otherwise memories of this passing school year.

"All work and no play" hasn't been our motto. We have had our share of the laughs too. Always around to keep the girls happy and smooth things over was Jerry Gartman, without whose able assistance and moral support we could have never made it. Jo Ann McKewen kept things from becoming dull with her good humor and quick wit. Betty Vosbury, Liz Hudgens and Mary Lou Low were always standing by, ready to lend a helping hand. Last but not least our talented and courageous editor-in-chief who braved the storms, kept her staff in running order, and executed the many and endless jobs that had to be done; yet Ramona McDaniel had time to give her co-workers encouragement and a friendly smile.

As you read through this book now and in the years to come, we sincerely hope that it gives you added pleasure in recalling memories of this school year 1949-50. We trust that you will grow as fond of this year's annual as we have been in creating the book for you, the student body.

PINE LOG 1950

Staff members take time out to pose.

As the "voice" of the student body, we realize that several times we have been accused of having laryngitis. In an effort to defend ourselves, as well as help those who will follow in our footsteps, we hasten to point out the following few little-known facts which we hope will be remembered by students in the years to come: the Pine Log office is located in the basement of Main, Room 1-A; all students are entitled and encouraged to contribute their stories, advice, and spare time to this publication; there is a monster commonly called "deadline" which must be appeased; and typographical errors can be corrected provided that at least one loyal friend of the editor can be found to read proofs. We, the vocal chords of this "voice," have endeavored to publish the news as we saw it and provide entertainment for you. We feel that if the efforts extended by the pictured starting line-up have enlightened or entertained you, our creative attempts have not been in vain.

J. T. Cox Director

Enthusiastically received during all football and basketball games, the Lumberjack band once again filled a nine months' calendar of musical activity. Music for pep rallies, booster trips to other towns and schools, numerous parades, concerts, and musical assemblies kept the sixty members constantly on the move.

We salute Director J. T. Cox, Drum Major Carolyn Mooney, Twirlers; Faye Brown, Stella Kelton, Mary Jo Goodwin, Patricia Forse, Peggy McKay, and Peggy Mahall: Flag Bearers; Edna Merle Cox, and Jackie Jones.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

The fun began with rehearsals at 4:00 on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in September with 46 members present. October found "Mr. B" tearing his mustache and forgetting how to say anything except "Let's knock off the funny stuff" and "Dooit agin."

The choir boasts of six concerts delivered in good form the week before Christmas holidays as well as several performances for local organizations and school occasions.

The sorrows of discords, flat notes, and silent entrances are all forgotten when we recall the fun we had on the concert tours which started before daybreak and ended long after nightfall.

BUDDY RYLAND'S Orchestra

Buddy and his trombone

The Buddy Ryland Orchestra will say goodbye to the pines of Stephen F. Austin this year to launch itself into the currents of professional life. Buddy Ryland and his orchestra are graduating this year and already have an impressive list of bookings waiting for them. The orchestra has had offers from four different booking agencies and will probably start recording for Decca at an early date.

Buddy and his boys introduced a new kind of dance music to SFA, and, through consistent listings among outstanding dance bands, earned recognition for SFA as well as for themselves. Since the orchestra's organization in 1947, the boys have been building it with only one idea in mind—of hitting the big time. They certainly seem to be on their way. From mop-topped Buddy Ryland to songstress Trixie Butler (in private life Mrs. Bill Davis) the orchestra is a competent, well-integrated organization that gives out with the newest in musical stylings in a manner that has won them comparison with such progressive greats as Tex Beneke, Les Brown and Gene Krupa.

The band already has dates lined up at such popular playgrounds as Houston's Plantation Club, the Shamrock, and Lou Ann's Club in Dallas. Soon after graduation the band will start its summer tour with three weeks booking at the Pleasure Pier in Galveston, and will then head for the West Coast playing mostly one night stands and theater dates.

The Big Time is waiting.

The newly formed American Chemical Society has been in existence on the campus of SFA for a very short time, yet it boasts a membership of over 95 per cent of the students eligible, namely, chemistry majors, and chemical engineers of at least sophomore standing.

A C S CLUB

The object of the Chapter is to foster a professional pride in chemistry, to secure the intellectual stimulation that arises from professional association, and to gain experience in preparing and presenting technical material before professional audiences.

The purpose of the Library Club is to interpret the library's work to the students of Stephen F. Austin in such a way that will make books interesting instead of boresome. Another objective of the club is to publicize and promote the activities of the library.

Membership in the club is not limited to student assistants; but any interested student is cordially invited to join, especially those students taking library science courses.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Psi Omega is the national honorary dramatic fraternity designed for the purpose of providing an honor society for those doing a high standard of work in dramatics. The aim of Alpha Psi Omega as set down in the Constitution is "fellowship and service to stimulate interest in collegiate dramatics." The fraternity does not take the place of the regular dramatic club or other production groups, but as students qualify, they are awarded membership in this society. Individual membership in Alpha Psi Omega is awarded to those college students who have participated in enough dramatic activities to meet the rigid requirements set up by the fraternity. These activities may take the form of participation in plays, production staff work, advertisement, direction, and playwriting. Membership is determined on a point-system basis.

Each college chapter of Alpha Psi Omega is known as a "cast," the national officers as "the grand cast," and the national convention as a "rehearsal." The Stephen F. Austin chapter is the Beta Phi Cast.

Officers for the year are: Milton Bradford, Director of the Cast; Evelyn Earl Monzingo, Sub-Director; Carolyn Mooney, Secretary-Treasurer.

FUTURE TEACHERS ----- OF AMERICA

The first FTA college and university chapters were chartered in the spring of 1939. One year later there were 64 chapters in good standing. In SFA the charter was revived in October, 1947, after an inactive period. However, its members and officers are now working towards a stronger chapter for the future.

Since the purpose of FTA is to train for democratic cooperative action, importance is attached to projects in which young people work at educational and civic problems.

FTA brings to the student the motivating power of a lifelong purpose and a nationwide outlook. It is designed to develop ideals and power in the lives of its members.

GRAND ORDER OF ROYAL BARRISTERS

The Grand Order of Royal Barristers is a professional club organized primarily for the benefit of those students who have chosen to enter the political field. This non-social club chooses its members with discretion, with emphasis upon character, ability to speak, and the capacity to withstand objective criticism. The Barristers convene each Monday night and each meeting is characterized by alertness and swiftmoving debate according to Robert's rules of parliamentary procedure. The subjects which come under fire at a Barrister meeting range all the way from the routine issues of club business to the major political issues of the day, and all discussions are undertaken with the knowledge on the part of each Barrister that no holds are barred.

The Grand Order of Royal Barristers is proud of its past record at Stephen F. Austin and its members have confidence in their ability to choose new members with the capacity to carry out the best traditions of a Barrister.

The officers of the Barristers for the Fall semester of '49 were Marter Mills, president; Waline Mott, vice-president; Kenneth Champion, secretary; Jack Stone, parliamentarian; Weeks Crawford, sergeant-at-arms; Calvin H. Bowden, reporter; and James McCauley, scavenger.

PRESS CLUB

The purposes of the Stephen F. Austin Press Club are to encourage those students who are interested in journalism, and to sponsor the student publications, the Pine Log, and the Stone Fort. The Press Club is also sponsoring a college magazine, The Knothole, which is to be published for the first time this year. A further purpose of the club is to aid in the advancement of the public relations of SFA.

The members of the Press Club meet weekly with assignments for work on the Pine Log being given out at the meetings. There are no dues required for membership in the club.

The Press Club is a member of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association, and the Club sends delegates each year to the meetings of the T.I.P.A. The Press Club sponsors the SFA Jamboree, an annual variety stage show of the campus talent.

The officers of the club for the fall semester of 1949 are James Parrish, president; Gene Belch, vice-president; Sarah Childress, secretary; Woody Behannon, reporter, Rumona McDaniel, program chairman; Selma Thomas, sergeant-at-arms; Weldon Wright and Lawrence Franks, sponsors.

ARTS INC.

Arts Incorporated was formed in 1946 in an effort to further the understanding and appreciation of the Fine Arts on the campus and in the surrounding communities. Much progress was made by the club this year, 1949-50, when it became a prominent organization on the campus, both as an instrument of culture and as an agency of advice and assistance in art to the other organizations active at SFA. Many and varied are the activities which have high-lighted this year's career of Arts Incorporated. To name a few, it has sponsored art exhibits both on and off the campus, solicited funds by making Christmas cards to sell, visited museums and other places of artistic interest, and has, in general, tried to raise its own cultural standards, as well as those of the inhabitants of the immediate vicinity.

ELLEN H. RICHARDS CLUB

The Home Economics Club has been an active organization since its beginning in 1926. In 1932 it became the Ellen H. Richards Club, honoring a pioneer in home economics education. The club flower is the rose; the motto, "Forever Learning," and the club colors are green and white. Our club has been affiliated with the state and national Home Economics Association since May 19, 1927. Miss Edna Wilkin, with assistance of other faculty members, has sponsored the club since its beginning.

Although the club members delight in new programs and projects, members point with pride and satisfaction to their yearly activities. Each year there is a club page in the annual, a morning coffee on Homecoming day, a float in the Homecoming parade, a Christmas party, Fall and Spring picnics, and a banquet honoring ex-students in the spring.

Officers for the club this year are: Betty Gunnels, president; Betty Pridgen, vice-president; Louise Riggs, secretary; Betty Ruth Stoker, treasurer; Jeanette Wolover, reporter; Patricia Townsend, historian; Jane Swanzy, room hostess; June Barton, parliamentarian; Jane Fontenot, program chairman; Margie Dale Redmon, yearbook chairman; Phyllis Garner, social chairman; and Mary Frances LaForge, publicity chairman.

GIBBS HALL COUNCIL -

Gibbs Hall Council, made up of girls elected by their associates because of their leadership ability, reputation for fair play, and general good nature, attempts to iron out Dormitory difficulties and to promote co-operation among the Dormitory girls to keep "everybody happy." Prexy Beavers presides to start the ball rolling at council and general house meetings called near the middle of the night or whenever the need arises, to discuss general improvements, or in rare instances to investigate a crashing coke bottle explosion at midnight, mostly occurring during deadweek, or to counsel girls who "just couldn't say goodnight" by 11 o'clock. House Mother Richardson, ever promoting the girls' best interests, adds her quiet peaceful attendance at the meetings and contributes helpful suggestions. Bessie Coussons records the happenings of the meetings and keeps account of finances, while Wing Counselors Watson and Beck from Third Floor, Lusk and Hudgens from Second, and Schillings from First deliver their respective contributions.

The Council promotes occasional General House meetings and other activities where all the Dormitory girls may participate. Among these are: a Coffee introducing Rush Week with all women students and women faculty members invited; a Kangaroo Court, where the freshmen really "jump"; a Christmas Party with gifts and fun for all, and General Gripe Sessions collecting corrective criticisms of Dormitory conditions.

Visitors from the Sam Houston College Student Congress were entertained with an afternoon coffee in Gibbs Hall Lounge in November. Monthly birthdays in each respective month, when they are guests of honor along with faculty members who celebrate birthdays together with them.

ALPHA — CHI

The Alpha Chi is a national honor society, whose purpose is to promote and recognize scholarship. The local chapter is named the A. W. Birdwell Chapter in honor of Dr. A. W. Birdwell, President of the College for many years. Members of this organization are chosen from the high ranking students of the junior, senior, and graduating classes, the number in each instance being limited to one-tenth of the membership of each class. Active members are elected in the fall, and graduate members at the spring and summer commencements.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION ————

Baptist Student Center

The Baptist Student Union emblem shows what we stand for. The helmet of salvation is uppermost, for all B.S.U. members first must be Christians and in addition members of a local Baptist Church or one of its unit organizations.

In the connecting links, we see its unified program of Baptist religious activity, and realize that it seeks to link the college student to the local church. The shield of faith represents prayer, and denominational loyalty; the sword of the Spirit behind it represents Bible study. Sacrificial service is embodied in the cross.

Our campus organization is a part of one which includes the youth of the state, the South, and ultimately the world, as we are connected with the Baptist World Alliance through its Youth Committee.

Highlights of the year were our pre-school retreat, the Thanksgiving Breakfast, State B.S.U. Convention, Christmas party, Youth Revival, Spring Conference, and Spring Banquet.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Methodist Student Center

The Wesley Bible Chair began its services to the student body of Stephen F. Austin, January 3, 1929, after five years of dreaming, praying, and negotiating on the part of those responsible for its establishment. From the beginning, directors of the Wesley Bible Chair have offered Bible courses to the students of the campus.

The name of the Bible Chair has been changed to "The Methodist Student Center" because of the new duties taken on by this organization. Today not only Bible courses, but a well-rounded program of worship, recreation, and fellowship is offered to all students of the campus.

By the end of the school year our housing facilities will be adequate for any and all activities sponsored by the Methodist Student Movement of the campus. It is our desire that the students use the new center as a second home, a place to hang their hat, rest by the fire- place, read a good book, or play dominoes. Our little Chapel is to be used for private meditation and devotionals as well as public worship. Through all our activities we trust that students of our campus will find the key to Abundant Living.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN AGGIE CLUB ———

With the exception of the war period, there has been an active Aggie Club organization present on the Stephen F. Austin campus since the beginning of the Agriculture Department. The first meeting was called November 16, 1949, and started the present Aggie Club which has one of the most promising futures of any group on the campus.

The plans are to observe local chapters of Area No. 1, and assist them in any possible way with their leadership training program. The main purpose is to set up the ideal as to what a high school chapter should be like in its training program and physical facilities. In addition to regular meetings, the club will assist with the annual Area No. 7 leadership contest and in Homecoming activities, take part in college intramural athletic programs, the Nacogdoches County Fair, and various other activities throughout the year.

Officers for the year are Taylor Johnson, president; Harold Ogden, vice-president; Roy Blake, secretary; Granvel Battle, treasurer; Lynn Tatom, reporter; and J. E. Green, sponsor.

SYLVANS

The Sylvans Club was organized in the fall of 1946 under the sponsorship of the Forestry staff. The club was originally organized around a group of 20 men and has since increased its membership to over 50 members. All students taking forestry courses are eligible to belong to the club.

The purpose and aim of the Sylvans is to bring the forestry students into closer contact with men who are actively engaged in the field of forestry and its allied industries. The club has been most fortunate in obtaining some of the outstanding leaders of forestry in this region as guest speakers, many of whom will eventually be employers of the present students.

KARLE WILSON BAKER Theatre Guild ———

The Stephen F. Austin Theatre Guild is a professional and service organization for students participating in or interested in dramatic activity. Enrollment in school is the only qualification for entrance in the Theatre Guild and students retain their membership by the amount of dramatic activity carried on. The aims of the Guild are to develop talent in dramatic work, to cultivate a taste for the best in drama, to foster the cultural values which dramatics are believed to develop, to offer dramatic entertainment for the school as a whole, and to aid other professional and social organizations in their dramatic endeavors.

The work of the Theatre Guild in the field of dramatics includes at least one major production each semester of school, a number of minor productions throughout the school year, and as many opportunities to participate with or aid other collegiate organizations in dramatic performances as possible. The purpose of the Guild is to build a greater interest and appreciation in the students and faculty of this college in the field of dramatic activity.

ministerial – alliance

Another important organization is the Ministerial Alliance, composed of the ministerial students on the campus. This group meets each week to discuss various spiritual atmosphere among students.

This interdenominational group distributes religious literature among the students, and holds special services during Religious Emphasis Week just prior to Easter.

The governing body for the students in the Student Congress. A president, vice-president, and secretary are elected in the latter portion of the spring semester to serve throughout the summer term and the next year. Each class president and representatives elected by the classes sit in a body with the student body officers to act on matters that are pertinent to the students.

Under these democratic principles, the Congress serves the school in a most valuable manner.

This year's body, headed by Earl Lord, has been very efficient and very successful in its undertakings.

Lambda Gamma was formed in the Fall semester of 1948, but it has already attained a membership and fraternal spirit equal to any on the campus. The club has grown until it now is well known for its enterprising activities. Lambda Gammas annually support all activities and customs of the college. They believe in undivided co-operation and fellowship among members. The club annually holds a beard-growing contest, a Sadie Hawkins dance, a dinner-dance with its sister club, the Sigma Gammas, and picnics and parties.

The highest honor to which any member can be elected is the secret Number Nine Committee. Three members are elected to this committee each semester. Their term of office is for life. Present honorary, but definitely qualified, members are: Maurice Hubbard, James Nesbitt, Tilden Nesmith, Charles Root, Gene Shaw, and Jerry Samford.

The Forester Club was organized in September, 1943, by a group of 14 boys as the original signers of the Forester constitution. The aim and purpose of the club as set forth in the preamble of our constitution is "to create a more fraternal relationship in our college and to found an organization which will be an asset to the social life of Stephen F. Austin State College." With that as their goal the Forester Club marched a long way in that direction and with each step they have gained compliments which are best appreciated within the Forester Club, for the Foresters know that they have achieved that virtue so earnestly desired . . . Honor.

Starting during the war years with two strikes against them, they rose to become one of the finest men's clubs on the campus. They are setting an incredible rapid pace in intramural athletics and social affairs. They are just now gaining their momentum and their spirit is unlimited.

It was once said that "the Forester Club was a war club and could not survive after the war." But those who are here know that it will always be . . . Foresters Forever!

The Sawyer Club was organized in the fall of 1927, and is the oldest club in SFA. They are easily recognized at any football or basketball game because of their traditionally famous ax handles.

The purpose of this organization is to promote school spirit among all college students and to bring together, in friendship and harmony, leaders of all phases of student life who are interested in working for the good of their school and club.

The organization, besides promoting school spirit and backing SFA, win or lose, does things socially on a large scale. The annual Bowery Ball and Apron-Overall Dance are two of the most popular and electrifying dances given on the forty acres. The Sawyers' loyalty to SFA is beyond question.

Organized in January, 1938, the Royal Order of Austinites was founded for the purpose of sponsoring school projects for the pleasure and benefit of the student body. The small gold emblem of the Royal Order of Austinites is emblematic of the four aims of the organization: Leadership, Scholarship, Character, and Fraternity. The Austinite Club sponsors a varied calendar of activities. Perhaps the most colorful activity is the annual "Pie Night" each spring semester; with its gags and slap-stick it has constantly won acclaim as one of the most outstanding features of the year. As a service to the student body, the Austinite Poll periodically gets the students viewpoint on pertinent questions and conducts other polls and elections. The Austinites are always eager to contribute their efforts toward any worthwhile project that is of interest to, or for the betterment of the student-body and the school.

It is through service and leadership that we hope to continue to retain a position as one of the leading organizations on the campus.

The Sigma Gamma Club was organized during the spring semester of 1948, as the sister club of the Lambda Gamma, a men's social club. The motto, "friendship, fellowship, and felicity," symbolizes the activities of Sigma Gamma. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Sibyl Wyatt and Mrs. Holt Davis and the leadership of Viola Bailey, we have striven to attain a worthy and respected place in Stephen F. Austin social life. The affairs given by the club included a Fall Fiesta, to be continued annually, a Carnival Rush Party, and other events. The theme adopted by the club was Dutch and pledges carried it out in dress and manner. It is the hope of each member that our organization will grow and in doing so enrich not only her own school career but the life of the entire student body.

'50 was an unforgettable year for the Fideles—who in four short years have rapidly risen to prominence and now are contending with the older clubs for the berth of the most outstanding club on the campus. The Fideles are not famous yet for their history but do rank high in social positions and activities. This year Betty Kimmey furnished the leadership with Frances Hartsfield acting as her assistant. Jean Risher was secretary and supervised the club expenditures . . . Jane Fontenot furnished weekly news to the Pine Log . . . Ramona McDaniel and Margareteene Feazell pasted the activities in the scrapbook . . . Peggy McKay kept the pledges in line . . . Bennie Jane sat in the corner collecting nickels and shouting "Order" . . . Miss Adkins wore a pleasing smile and exerted her congenial personality. Jean Risher reigned as Homecoming Queen with Betty Adams, Frances Hartsfield and Phyllis Garner as Duchesses . . . Carolyn led the SFA band for the third year . . . Peggy served as one of the twirlers, Edna Merle carried the flag, while Phyllis, Sophomore Favorite, led yells on the side line. Ramona and Frances are members of Who's Who and Marjorie and Edna Merle are Alpha Chi members. Billie George, Junior Favorite, won title as Stone Fort Queen. The Ranch Rushee Party, the Fidele-Forester Halloween Ball, the Tea for the Exes, Christmas Dinner Dance, picnics, and the biggest event of the Spring, the Fidele-Forester Spring Festival, furnished the topics of conservation for many people throughout the year.

This year marks a "20" in the sands of time for the Pine Burrs. For two decades the wearers of the tiny golden pine burr have added their charm, style, and personality to the Stephen F. Austin campus.

In retrospect of this year we see Kennedy wielding the gavel with Thames second in command and keeping pledges in tow . . . Jones keeping minutes and pinching pennies . . . Hurst quieting us down while Gann records history and Lusk acts as publicity man . . . Mrs. Baker acting as prime minister in her role of sponsor . . . in the beauty parade, Dossey, Gammill, Goodwin, Middleton, and Sullivan . . . a fairyland Homecoming float topped by four pretty misses surrounding a wishing well . . . Gibson, Holiman, and Kennedy in the Queen's Court . . . a brief-skirted chorus line entertaining guests at "Club 20" . . . a tow-sack clad procession of pledges shouting, "I wanta be a cute Pine Burr!" . . . and a whole organization proclaiming PINE BURRS FOREVER!!!

Since the year 1928, the Amitie Club has been one of the most outstanding organizations on the SFA campus. The small gold diamond-shaped pin of the club distinguishes the members from the pledges, who wear small silver A's.

President of the club for this year is Liz Hudgens, with Mary Lou Low serving as vice-president. Naomi Wright collects the money and records the meetings and Jo Ann Muckleroy is the journalist. Tucker Holt is in full command of the pledges, making their pledge semester a cherished memory of those first college days. Dorothy Chambers serves as sergeant-at-arms at the regular Tuesday night meeting. The scrap book is kept in good order by Junior Covington and Ercycle Waller.

Some of the most outstanding social events on the Amitie calendar start off with the Amitie Cocktail Party for rushees, followed by the Anniversary Ball, Homecoming Dinner for the exes, Christmas Dinner Dance, the Spring Formal, and all club Backward Dance ending with a slumber party for the girls, and many other picnics and parties.

The Kappa Beta Club was organized in 1946 as the only co-educational club on the campus and it still holds that distinction. The club advocates the idea of an independent social club which all students are invited to join. Its activities range from participation in intramural sports to sponsorship of the annual St. Agnes Eve dance. At its name suggests the Kappa Beta Club seeks to promote fellowship, democracy, and co-operation among college students. This year the club sponsored a coffee at the beginning of the fall semester to which all non-club students were invited, entered a float in the Homecoming parade, and gave various parties and dinners for members. Ably sponsored by Mr. Scanlon and Mrs. Maurice Cecil, the young club has rapidly taken its place among the organizations of the college.

Stephen F. Austin State College, Nacogdoches, Texas

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Here's your 1950 Stone Fort that we've been "bustlin' around" so much about all through the year. Since September it has been on our hands. We now place it in yours. It has taken the combined efforts of a great many students, the faculty, and many others who have joined in compiling this record of Stephen F. Austin life during the past year. The staff wishes to pay full tribute to these faithful workers who would otherwise remain unrecognized.

To Robert S. See and the staff of the Shreveport Engraving Company go our gratitude for their co-operation and splendid service; to Bob Smith, commercial artist of Shreveport Engraving Co., who did all the art work. We are indebted to Dr. Sheley and Violet Adkins, annual sponsors, for their patience, guidance, and faithfulness; for Lawrence Franks' helpful advice and co-operation; to R. R. Harvin for publicity; to Louis Secard for for picking the Stone Fort beauties. George Shorter of Shreveport is to be congratulated upon his excellent photography which is featured throughout the book. To all others not mentioned here who played some part in compiling this book, go our humble thanks.

Also, we wish to thank the advertisers who have helped to finance this yearbook.

Ramona McDaniel
EDITOR

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

On behalf of the faculty, student body, Stone Fort staff, and myself, I should like to take this opportunity to express our thanks and appreciation for your co-operation in making this Yearbook possible. I am certain the students and the faculty of Stephen F. Austin will repay their gratitude by calling on you as often as possible.
